

JAPS ROUSING LHAMAS TO ACT

Mongolia Is In Grave Danger, And The Russians Are Warned Of New Peril.

RETREAT STILL CONTINUES NORTH

Late Reports From The Russian Line Of March Show The Japs Are Not Far Behind The Rear Guard At Present.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]

St. Petersburg, March 25.—The retreat of the bulk of Linovitch's forces continues northward. The Russians have been warned of the dangers of the Japanese activity in Mongolia, where it is said their emissaries are enlisting the Lamas, arousing their old war-like spirit.

Late Reports
Linevitch reports under yesterday's date: "A Russian patrol has been fired upon by the Japanese cavalry occupying the village of Puluschi. There has been a change of position in the armies during the day. On March 23d the Russian cavalry repulsed the forces of the Japanese at Schuauingausa and Nanshenstsi."

The Real Strength
The army organ, which today printed figures showing the strength of the forces dispatched to the far east, has created a sensation in military circles.

The war office is being freely criticised for revealing the military secrets. The figures given show up to March 12th the war office dispatched 13,087 officers, 761,457 men, 146,408 horses, 1,521 guns, 716,321 tons of ammunition and supplies to the front and declaring the transportation strained the Siberian railroad to its utmost capacity.

Not 60,000 Men
The army organ admits the Russian troops in the far east at the beginning of the war did not exceed sixty thousand and denies the Russian officials failed to properly estimate the strength of the Japanese military resources, but frankly admits the talents of the officers and wonderful spirit of the soldiers was miscalculated. Based on these figures it is estimated the Russian losses in killed and wounded, also the prisoners and sick, reach a half million, leaving the Russian effective strength now at three hundred thousand.

KILLS BILLS OF GENERAL NATURE

Legislature Holds a Saturday Session To Hurry the Work Along Today.

Madison, Wis., March 25.—The Assembly killed the Ekersen joint resolution making the distribution of the school fund among the towns and cities of the state for the support of common schools in some just proportion to the number and the school attendance of the children and youthful residents therein between the ages of four to twenty years. It advanced senator Hudson's measure enabling the county boards of supervisors to appropriate money to assist organizations for immigration purposes. It also advanced the Schauer bill providing for a fine of from twenty-five to one hundred dollars or imprisonment of from thirty to sixty days for false determination in the use of the Babcock milk test. Also the Donald measure fixing the penalty of a fine of from $25 to $100 for the sale of vinegar not up to the standard.

NO OPEN DOOR FOR WILLIAM H. GIBLIN

Jury in Circuit Court Decided for the Defendants in Right-Of-Way Action.

The case of William H. Giblin of the town of Union against Adelaide Johnson and Louis Apfel, was decided by the jury in the circuit court yesterday, in favor of the defendants. Mr. Giblin claimed a way or private right-of-way across the property of Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Apfel, by prescription. That is, on the ground that he had used the way for more than twenty years continuously and adversely to the defendants and their grantors. When the action was begun, a temporary injunction was obtained, restraining the defendants from interfering with or obstructing Mr. Giblin's passage across the practitioners and the nurses. Dr. Whiting is one of the most remarkable men in Janesville and during his long life of usefulness has accomplished much good. He served through the Civil war as a surgeon, being placed in many trying places during his term of service. He has twice been honored by the state G. A. R. and once by the national G. A. R., being made surgeon general of the state and national departments. Dr. Whiting has been a devout churchman during his life and has for many years been a member of the Christ church vestry. It is to be hoped that Doctor Whiting will soon be able to be out again to greet his old friends.

CASE ARISING FROM THE BELOIT FLOOD

McKearns vs. St. Paul Road Action Dismissed on Motion of the Plaintiff.

When the case of John McKearns and Richard McKearns against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company was reached in the circuit court, and after a jury was called into the box, the attorneys for the plaintiff moved that it be dismissed, claiming that there were witnesses which they could not procure. Mr. Nolan, representing the defendant, stated that his client was ready for trial. The court, however, dismissed the action.

The plaintiffs are residents of the city of Beloit, and own property on the corner of State street and St. Paul avenue there. On March 22 and 23, 1904, there was an almost unprecedented rainstorm in that vicinity. The waters of Turtle creek, which runs along the southern boundary of Beloit, rose to such a height that portions of Beloit and the territory adjacent to it on the south were flooded.

The plaintiffs claim that the water got into the basement of their place of business, where a quantity of wines and liquors were stored, making them worthless, and that the water also injured the walls of their building, their total damage being fifteen hundred dollars. They also claim that a bridge of the C. & M. & St. P. Railway company, which crosses Turtle creek not far from the freight station of that company, was the cause of the flood, the opening in the bridge not being large enough to permit the water to pass through. This claim is denied by the railway company. There are a number of similar claims, and it was hoped by all interested that the McKearns case would be tried, it being the only one of the actions arising from the Beloit flood noticed for this term.

Cornelius Smith of this city and Cornelius Buckley of Beloit were the attorneys for the plaintiff, and H. H. Reid of Chicago and Thos. S. Nolan represented the defendant.

SECRETARY HAY WILL RETIRE NOW

Stated on the Best of Authority That He Will Never Go Back to His Work.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Washington, March 25.—It is stated on the best authority that Secretary Hay will not resume his place in the cabinet on his return from his present vacation. His health is the sole cause of his present determination to retire. The president is now canvassing the names of several eminent gentlemen with a view to asking one of them to become Hay's successor. Among those considered are Joseph C. Choate and Whitelaw Reid. Hay's friends have hoped that a few weeks' rest, change of air, and scene would enable the secretary to resume his place at the head of the state department. That hope has now been abandoned.

NORCROSS MADE EXCELLENT TALK

Janesville Assemblyman Made Himself Felt in the Legislature Yesterday.

Assemblyman Pliny Norcross made a sensation at Madison yesterday when he bitterly assailed the men who brought William Jennings Bryan to Madison to urge the adoption of Mr. Norcross's opening question was that he believed Mrs. Chadwick owed debts to the extent of $2,000,000, and of that sum but $100,000 in assets had been located. He asked Mrs. Chadwick to assist the trustee for the creditors in locating all that could be found of her property. This Mrs. Chadwick said she was willing to do, but said that important papers she had sent for would not be in her possession until Thursday. She said the papers were scattered around in Canton, in Pittsburg, in New York, and other places.

COMMISSIONS EXCEED THE LOANS

Declares She Gave A Note For $190,800 Actually Receiving But $78,000 From The Broker Who Acted For Her.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]

Cleveland, Ohio, March 25.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick Friday declared in the bankruptcy court that her total indebtedness would not exceed $750,000; that of this sum, borrowed from various persons, she had received but $517,000, leaving $233,000 for commissions to the money lenders.

In enlarging on this declaration, she said that the note for $190,800 held by Herbert D. Newton of Boston represented but $78,000 in money actually received. Asked if it could be true that the commission paid for that borrowed sum amounted to $112,800, or $34,800 more than she obtained, she replied explicitly that it was and this was a typical case among her transactions.

In this, the first statement ever made by the notorious Cleveland woman, much light was shed on the manner in which she lured crafty financiers of America into her net. Curiosity was the one human characteristic or which she played, and she made the most of that, if her own statements can be taken as true.

Discloses Additional Assets.

The examination disclosed additional assets of $200,000. Of this amount $58,000 is due from Charles H. Stewart of Cleveland and $150,000 worth of jewelry held by Wolfers Bros. of Brussels, Belgium. Mrs. Chadwick asserted that there are other assets, consisting of jewelry and valuable articles held by other persons for her.

Mr. Grossman's opening question was that he believed Mrs. Chadwick owed debts to the extent of $2,000,000, and of that sum but $100,000 in assets had been located. He asked Mrs. Chadwick to assist the trustee for the creditors in locating all that could be found of her property. This Mrs. Chadwick said she was willing to do, but said that important papers she had sent for would not be in her possession until Thursday. She said the papers were scattered around in Canton, in Pittsburg, in New York, and other places.

ty was, and would also make known what sums of money she had borrowed. She denied that her indebtedness would amount to $2,000,000 or any sum near it. She said the sum of $750,000, which she admits she owed, would include the bonuses paid for the loans.

Relative to the suit of Herbert D. Newton of Boston, Mass., to recover $130,800 loaned by him, Mrs. Chadwick said she was not indebted to Mr. Newton for that amount. She said Mr. Newton held her paper for that sum, but that she did not receive that much money from him.

"How much did he give you, actually?" Mr. Grossman asked.
"It would represent $78,000," replied Mrs. Chadwick. "I obtained $28,000 in money and notes for the balance. Two $15,000 notes were applied upon an old debt and two $10,000 notes were negotiated. I realized $1,000 on one and $4,000 on the other."

Pays $112,800 in Commission.
"Does the difference between $78,000 and the $190,800 represent the commission?"
"Yes."

"Where are these notes?"
"One is in Oberlin—one for $10,000—and the other $10,000 note is in Europe."

"Who has the note in Europe?"
"G. R. Cutler, a Brussels broker."

"Where are the two $15,000 notes?"
"They are with a banker. I would rather not mention his name."

"Then you paid $112,800 commission for the Newton loans?"
"Yes."

Friend Got 100 Per Cent.
Mrs. Chadwick said she did not care to state how much she owed James A. Friend of Pittsburg, but after several other questions had been asked and answered, she said that the actual sum she had received from Mr. Friend was $75,000. For this she said, she gave him notes for $150,000.

She said that Mr. Friend had assisted her in making her loans to the amount of $150,000. For this she gave jewelry as security. Of the loans for $150,000 she said she received the entire sum. Mrs. Chadwick said $225,000 is the total of her indebtedness in Pittsburg.

HIGH WATER AT UPPER DAM

Rock river has been raising steadily within the past seven days, though it is still several inches below the high-water mark. That it will reach and pass this mark before many more days have passed is a possibility that is reckoned with by those who have cellars in the neighborhood of its banks. The melting of the heavy snows in the north is swelling the tributaries. Both the Yahara and the Crawfish are reported to be bank-full of water. The small Niagara snows were very heavy both in the regions which they drain and the territory about Watertown. Lake Koshong still retains its 18-inch ice, but the warm rains which may be expected at any time will bring on the break-up. Once the way is open no one can predict the proportions of the volume of water with the Rock will have to carry southward. The upper dam already begins to take on the appearance of a ed to be bank-full of water. The small Niagara

MRS. JANET B. DAY, CANDIDATE FOR SCHOOL COMMISSIONER

For the first time in the history of Janesville a woman has entered the political field for office. Mrs. Janet B. Day is a candidate for school commissioner from the third ward. Mrs. Day was placed in nomination by her women admirers, who call themselves the "good government party." The Wisconsin laws now give women the right to vote for a candidate for school commissioner and the members of the fair sex have pledged themselves to turn out at the coming election.

SUMMER SCHOOL AT UNIVERSITY

CAREFUL COURSES HAVE BEEN ARRANGED FOR THE WORK.

GIVE EXCELLENT INSTRUCTION

Professors of Note From All Over the Country Are To Take Part in the Course.

Madison, Wis., March 25.—The catalogue of the summer session of the University of Wisconsin now in press indicates that the work this summer will be of unusual interest. Besides the regular university course, now offered in all departments, for which credit may be obtained towards the regular college degree, a number of special courses particularly adapted for teachers have also been added. In addition to the regular university faculty, several special lecturers will conduct courses during this summer. Among these are Professor Alcee Fortier, professor of Romance languages at Tulane University; Dr. Charles W. Kent, professor of English literature at the University of Virginia; Dr. William H. Carruth, professor of Germanic language and literature at the University of Kansas; Major Evan R. Jones, M. F., editor-in-chief of the London Shipping World; and Mr. Carroll C. Pearce, superintendent of schools of Milwaukee. The department of home economics of the university will offer several courses, some of which are particularly designed for those preparing to teach that subject. Dr. J. C. Elson, director of gymnastics at the university, will give special instructions designed for those who intend to fit themselves as teachers in physical training. The fifth session of the summer school for artisans, given by the College of Engineering, offers special training for those interested in drafting, mechanics, manual training, and similar subjects. The western railroads have just granted special excursion rates for the whole of the summer session.

Contemporary France.
Professor Alcee Fortier of Tulane University will give a course of lectures on contemporary French institutions and politics in comparison with those of the United States a subject which promises to be of great interest. The course will include a survey of the third French Republic and the evolution of republican principles from the government of Adolphe Thiers to the presidency of Emile Loubet.

English Politics.
Major E. R. Jones, formerly resident of Wisconsin for many years, consul-general to Cardiff, Wales, and now editor-in-chief of the London Shipping World, will deliver a series of lectures on political and economic life in Great Britain. Major Jones, who for ten years was a member of Parliament as one of the Liberal party during the leadership of Gladstone and Lord Rosebery, is well-informed on political conditions in England today, and will discuss the present state of political parties and the political and economic problems. He will also present the conditions of British commercial and industrial life in their relation to political conditions, and to those of the United States.

School Management.
Superintendent Carroll C. Pearce of the Milwaukee schools has been secured to conduct a special course in school management during the second half of the summer session. Mr. Pearce will lecture on the practical problems of school supervision and management. Professor Charles W. Kent of the department of English of the University of Virginia is announced for a course of lectures on southern American literature with special reference to the poets of the south. He will also give a graduate

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gasses and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines, and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from the continued use of them, but one the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

course on Tennyson and his work. The history of the German novel is to be the subject of a course by Professor William H. Carruth of the University of Kansas, in which he will trace the history and development of the German novel and its technique. Sixteenth century literary conditions, with a special study of the works of Luther will be the subject of another course by Professor Carruth.

Home Economics.
The courses in the department of home economics under the direction of Professor Caroline L. Hunt and Miss Ellen A. Huntington have been planned to meet the needs of the teachers, both of those who desire to make a specialty of the subject and those who wish to incorporate instruction in home economics into general courses in the schools. In addition to the teachers' courses, the department will offer courses preparatory to special advanced work for institutional workers, such as nurses, house-keepers, dietitians and others in charge of the public and private institutions. The summer work this year will include studies in house sanitation, selection and preparation of food, house furnishing, teaching of domestic science, and the microscopic examination of food products and textiles with a study of the method of detecting adulterations.

Work in Gymnastics.
Dr. J. C. Elson, director of university gymnastics, has provided special courses for those who are interested in teaching physical training in high schools, normal schools, and colleges. This work includes lectures on the theory and physiology of exercise, methods of physical measurement, medical gymnastics, practical lessons in first aid to the injured, and instruction in all forms of light and heavy gymnastics with particular reference to methods of conducting gymnasium classes.

Nature Study.
One of the departments of summer session work to which more attention will be given than heretofore, is that of field work in physical geography, geology, zoology, and botany. Professor W. H. Hobbs of the department of geology will conduct the work in physiography, much of which will be a study in the field of glacial action and the topography resulting therefrom, weathering, stream action and erosion, and like sedimentation and shore features. An important part of the study will be the excursions to the surrounding country with a study of the driftless area of Wisconsin, and the moraines near the city, made famous by the study of Professors Chamberlin and Salisbury.

Special Railroad Rates.
As a result of the efforts of the university authorities a special rate of one and one-half fare on the certificate plan has been secured for the first time this year for the whole of the summer session in the western passenger association territory. Special tourist rates have also been obtained from all parts of the country. From the inquiries already received from teachers and others interested in summer school work, the indications are that the attendance at the summer session this year will be largest in its history.

VETERAN EMPLOYEE OF NORTHWESTERN

Carl A. Palmer Has Record of Long and Faithful Service in Janesville Shops.

Carl A. Palmer, a veteran employee of the Chicago & Northwestern road, enjoys the distinction of having worked in the Janesville shops longer than any man on the pay roll of the company. He commenced as a machinist in the Chicago avenue shops, Chicago, over forty years ago, entering the ranks of the company's workmen in the fall of 1864. The next spring Mr. Palmer was transferred to Janesville and the twenty-first of this month marked the close of two score years' employment in the shops here. Mr. Palmer followed the trade of machinist until 1889 when he was made head machinist. In 1892 he was appointed foreman of the locomotive department in this city and served in that capacity until the fall of 1895, when he resigned to resume his duties as head machinist which place he still fills ably and most efficiently.

OLD FOGY TAKES UP THE SUBJECTS

ADVISES CHANGES IN AFFAIRS OF THE CITY.

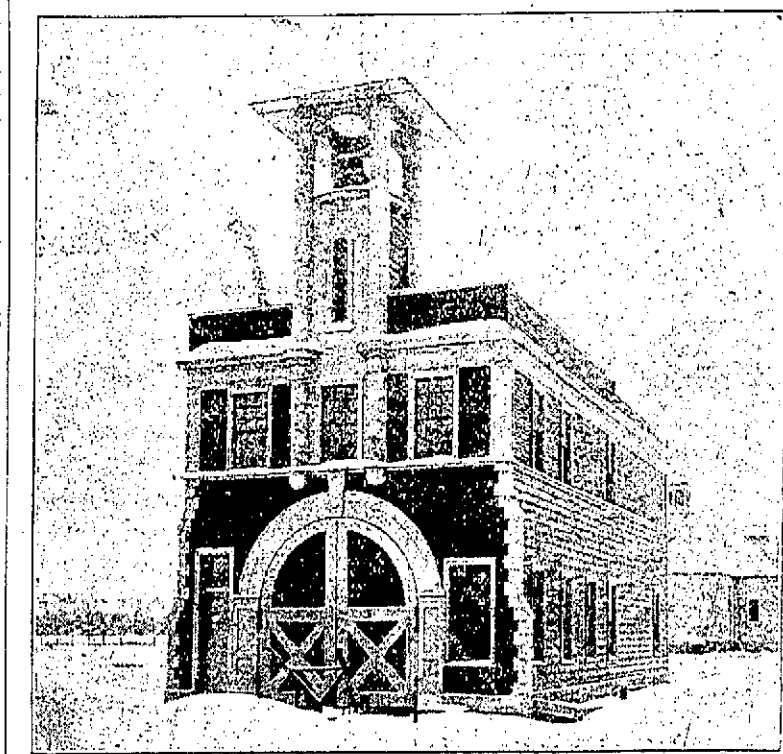

REFERS TO POLITICS TODAY

Economy of City at Expense of Health of Citizens, Is Not Economy.

To the Editor: Just at this time when spring politics are in full blast it would not be out of the way to say something regarding the candidates. In Mr. Matheson, the republicans have made the wise selection of a good, clean, honest gentleman. A thorough business man well acquainted with the needs of the city and interested in the growth and welfare of the municipality. Mr. Matheson will draw his vote largely from the ranks of property owners and thinking, observing men. He is not a man to be an active campaigner but if elected would make the city a good executive. His opponent, Mr. Fred Hutchinson, is also a worthy candidate and one whose recent term, of but a year's duration, has opened possibilities of what he might do in the future. The present campaign is not one of personalities, not one of mind slinging and friends of both the candidates can rest assured that when the election is settled at the polls the result will be satisfactory to all. Throughout the war the candidates chosen are most excellent with perhaps a few exceptions, on all three sides, if the political fight can be called three sided. In the second ward, for the honor and good name of the ward John Peters and George Buchholz should be elected. Both are good men and will make excellent aldermen. If the republicans stand together they will be. If they seek other gods they will not. The first and third are scenes of one-sided contests. The fourth and fifth are battle-grounds. Harry Carter would make an excellent alderman in the fourth and either Dulin or Peterson would be satisfactory to the constituents of the fifth.

The Streets.
It is to be hoped as soon as the election is over the streets will be attended to. They are in a shocking condition. The council should of course economize but it is not necessary to do so at the expense of the citizens' general health. The excuse given for the condition of Main street is that it is to be paved this summer hence no improvements were made. The rapid thaws of the spring, the frequent snows all tended to make the down town district on both sides of the river a perfect quagmire. However we shall see what we shall see. However there is one thing I most earnestly hope for. That is that the new council will reappoint the present street superintendent for another term. Janesville has never had a street superintendent who has so carefully attended to his duty as has Mr. Watson and it should gain for him his reappointment if only as a reward of merit.

Spring Changes.
Now that the spring days are approaching we may expect at any time to see the policemen blossom out in their new uniforms I am told. At least so the council ordered. But what about the system for police calls and calls for the police? The council appears to be remiss in this matter. They have the power to make these changes, they should see that they are made. A patrol box of the latest pattern, was sent to the city for inspection I am told but I can find but two of the aldermen who saw it or even considered the matter seriously. This is a matter that should not be lost sight of. Be it is installing a police signal system and if Beloit can afford such a system I should think Janesville can.

New Fire Station.
The new fire station in Spring Brook is completed, the apparatus ready and I am told the house will be opened in April. When the house was built the manufacturers of Spring Brook told the council that if the fire house was located on their side of the river they would guarantee more new factories would be located there. We are from Missouri, now show us the factories rushing to get space in this district. There is one matter that has always seemed peculiar to me and that is the pay of the firemen and policemen. A green fireman goes on the force and for five years receives but fifty dollars a month and is on duty all the time. A green policeman goes on the force and receives sixty dollars a month for a part of a day's work. Why the discrimination? There must be some good reason but I fail to discover it.

The Ward Division.
I hear numerous complaints of the primary election and the voting machines but principally on the latter because of the fact that the different wards of the city which formally had two voting precincts in them now have but one and that people who were accustomed to vote in the upper precinct of the third ward now have to go to the lower one which is a great inconvenience. Why not settle this dispute once and for all and divide the third ward into two wards, a third and a sixth. Make Racine street the division line and build the bridge across the river at this point. It is a good plan.

An Evidence of Janesville's Progressive Spirit and Unflinching Zeal to Ample Protect Property.

Janesville's new fire station in the Spring Brook addition will be opened for service on April 1. James Sheridan will be the driver of the hose cart and he will have two associates. The latter have not yet been chosen. There is room for four horses, ample paraphernalia, and all the modern conveniences for taking care of the same.

The site for No. 3 is located at the corner of McKee Boulevard and Eastern avenue and cost $700. The structure represents an outlay of $2,145. It is a roomy frame structure containing plenty of space for the apparatus and vehicles and a large dormitory for six beds on the second floor.

Its location in the center of the new manufacturing district of the city will not only afford protection to valuable interests already located there but is also calculated to offer an additional advantage to concerns

NO USELESS LAND UNDER THE SUN

GU Y MITCHELL WRITES VERY INTERESTINGLY ON SOIL.

EXPLORATION IS CONTINUAL

No Let Up in the Search for New Wonders by the Scientists.

"We have no useless American acres," said Secretary Wilson in speaking of the work of the department in introducing new plants and improving methods of agriculture. "There are no bad acres, we will make them all productive. We have agricultural explorers in every far corner of the world, and they are finding crops which have become so acclimated to dry conditions, similar to our own in the west, that we will in time have plants thriving upon all our so-called desert lands. We will cover this arid area with plants of various sorts which will yield hundreds of millions of tons of additional forage and grain for western flocks and herds. Our farmers will grow this upon land now considered practically worthless."

Tireless Activities.
A tireless activity is being displayed by the department in the reclamation of great areas of the central west through the far-reaching work of our agricultural explorers who are traversing lands in the interests of the American farmer, especially the high, dry plains and steppes of central Asia—the cradle of the world—where agriculture reaches back from history into dim tradition. The activities of Mr. Wilson's department bode ill for the continuance of any great stretches of our once limitless American desert.

Giant Government Dam in Arizona.
The government contractors have begun work on the giant Tonto dam in the Salt river valley. Already the government has blasted out a mountain roadway along the precipitous shelves of the canyon and has constructed its cement mill and its big power plant, utilizing the energy of the stream itself wherever to grind the 200,000 barrels of cement necessary to build the enormous edifice, a work of solid masonry. This dam is to be 220 feet high and 200 feet thick and to cost $5,000,000. It will form the greatest artificial lake in the United States and will irrigate something like 500,000 acres of deep and fertile soil. The conditions are described by the engineers as ideal for dam building. The towering perpendicular walls of the narrow box canyon, at the bottom of which rushes the Salt river, are of tough and enduring sandstone, and this masonry wedge will become in reality a part of the everlasting rocks which it joins to hold back the torrential floods of the Salt river. A CREAMY FOOD

Scott's Emulsion is cod liver oil prepared as a food—not a food like bread or meat, but more like cream; in fact, it is the cream of cod liver oil. At the same time it is a blood-maker, a nerve tonic and a flesh-builder. But principally it is food for tired and weak digestions, for all who are fat-starved and thin. It is pleasant to take; children like it and ask for more.

We'll send you a sample, free. SCOTT & BOWNE, 109 Pearl Street, New York.

A BALD NEWSPAPER MAN.

Getting a New Croy of Hair, and Has No More Dandruff.

Everybody in the Northwest knows Col. Daniel Scaries, the veteran journalist and publisher of Butte. Jan. 10, 1900, the Colonel writes: "I used a couple of bottles of Newbro's Herpicide with marvelous results. The dandruff disappeared; a new crop of hair has taken root, and the bald spot is rapidly being covered." Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ that digs up the scalp in scales as it burrows its way to the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out. Kill the dandruff germ, with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

Extending out from many of the little islands which make the Florida waters so picturesque, is a low beach which is completely submerged at high tide, but when the tide goes out the sand appears and bars stretch out into the water changing the appearance of the landscape.

At high tide these bars are great resorts for small fish, for the shallow water furnishes them protection from the monsters of the deep. It is no uncommon thing, on a still night, to hear the splash of a porpoise as he makes a rush on the bar for food and finds himself stranded in a few inches of water. The struggle and puffing to get back into deep water can be heard for half a mile.

On a quiet dark night not long ago a party started out in a small boat to explore a sand bar at high tide. The water was bright with phosphorus and every dip of the oar threw up a golden spray, and as the bow of the boat parted the still water as it glided noiselessly along, it seemed like floating on a sea of molten gold.

When the bar was reached the fish commenced to swirl away from the boat in all directions and the trail of phosphorescent light, as they shot through the water, was like a bunch of rockets turned loose at a Fourth of July celebration. Fish are frequently speared on these bars by the light which they create as they glide through the water. Just what causes this light has not been fully determined but the supposition is that the water at certain times is infested with a little animalcule so small and yet so brilliant that the water is illumined whenever disturbed.

The study of animal life in southern waters is an interesting study. One of the smallest specimens which attracts attention is the fiddler crab. He is about the size of a crab but, on all legs and claws. The beach at low tide is dotted with little round holes where the "fiddlers" are buried, and as the tide comes in they crawl out and back away from the water and the shore is alive with them. The soft shell crab, varying in size from a butter plate to a saucer, is also numerous.

They live in shallow water and the sand bars abound with them. They are good things to let alone as their claws are vicious and they know how to use them. The tarpon and some of the larger fish feed on them but they are usually well protected in shallow water—except from fishermen, who capture them in a crab net and cut them up for bait.

The sturgeon is another inhabitant of southern waters and is also a curiosity. He is flat and round, and about the size of a peck measure. He has a tail ten or twelve inches long, with teeth on both sides as sharp as a saw, and he uses it to good purpose in self defense.

The sturgeon is frequently caught in seines, but he is handled very gingerly, for a sting from the tail leaves an ugly wound and often results in blood poisoning.

There are 600 varieties of fish and most of them live on each other. One of the most interesting is the sword fish. One of these was captured a few days ago. He measured 9 feet and 5 inches from the tip of the tail to the end of the sword and weighed about 130 pounds. The sword was about 4 inches wide where it leaves the upper jaw and the tapers down to 1 1/2 inches at the other end. It was two feet long and furnished on either side with teeth an inch apart and about 1 1/2 inches long.

This sword fish swings so rapidly that it can hardly be seen when in motion and is ruinous to anything with which it comes in contact. The sword fish feeds by burying himself in the mud with nothing but his eyes and sword exposed. When a fish comes within range the sword dispatches him in short order.

The old saying that "little fish must keep near shore" is understood when the habits of the larger fish are studied.

It can scarcely be comprehended, is a self-supporting tribe and the survival of the fittest is the only law that governs. It preys upon itself and thrives, yet its worst enemy is man, for he calls upon the water as well as the land to contribute to his necessities and pleasure.

A tarpon, the king fighter of all fish, was captured yesterday, after a stubborn fight of an hour and a half. He had fought his way to maturity against all odds and as he lay in the boat with his silver scales sparkling like diamonds in the sun light, it was difficult to realize that a slender line like a thread had been more than he could withstand.

It is worth something to be a king fish in a domain which is thronged with monarchs, but it is worth more to be a common every day man in a realm where intelligence is the motive power.

The tarpon commands respect because of his beauty and graceful activity, but his life is brief and his bones contribute to the phosphorus beds which are constantly being discovered. He lives with his associates in a kingdom where existence is the only incentive, while man occupies a higher plain and with existence may work out a destiny, if he will.

There are too many people who like the fish, simply exist, and they are not all found in the south.

President Salisbury's friends are gratified by the support which is coming to him in his campaign for the office of State Superintendent from men and women of all parts of the state, regardless of party or faction. Mr. Salisbury has often lectured before Wisconsin conventions and has a wide acquaintance outside of the teaching profession. His recent lecture on "How Should the Teacher Live?" has received much attention from those who have at heart the best interests of the boys and girls of the state. It will pay everyone to read his lecture and thus secure an impression of the man. It now looks as if Mr. Salisbury will have an easy victory at the polls.

ROCKEFELLER MONEY WILL NOT GO A-BEGGING

American Board of Foreign Missions
Prudential Committee to Vote to Accept Gift of $100,000.

Boston, Mass., March 25.—Despite the storm of protest that has come from ministers of the Congregational and other churches of New England and in the face of the dissenting memorial presented and signed by thirty local pastors, the prudential committee of the American board of foreign missions will on next Tuesday vote unanimously to accept the gift of $100,000 from John D. Rockefeller and will use the money for the benefit of mission schools in the Orient.

The action on the part of the prudential committee will follow the unanimous recommendation of a subcommittee of three that the gift be accepted.

It is likely that after the announcement by the committee of the acceptance of the gift the protesting ministers will appeal to the full council of the American board, which meets in Seattle, Wash., in September. The fact that the Baptist board of missions some few years ago accepted a gift of $250,000 from Mr. Rockefeller and Oberlin college has also accepted $100,000 is said to have had weight with the prudential committee.

The main issue of the criticism from the different ministers is that Rockefeller's money is "tainted" because of the methods used in amassing it and that such donations should not be accepted for use in Christian organizations.

It is the consensus of opinion, however, among the members of the prudential committee that the American board of foreign missions is not an institution for reforming the private character of the individuals who give it money, nor can it be within its jurisdiction to form a board of inquiry to investigate the business methods of such donors.

MONEY IS POWER

There is Only One Way to Quick Fortune.

Mining Investments Are Sure

Legitimate Mining Stocks Yield Large, Quick Returns.

$100 Make $1000 in a Year

My statement some weeks ago that an investment of $100 in the fine mining stocks I represent would make $1,000 in a year's time, has come true.

It has developed much quicker than I thought for and the confirmation of my statement is just another wedge in the argument of quick fortune from safe mining investment.

Those who accepted the opportunity to purchase Great Western California stock or Amazon Mexico stock were fortunate. Great Western is off the market. Amazon has gone to $2 per share.

Read the following telegram received by me yesterday:

Reading, Cal., March 24, 1905.
H. F. Nott, Janesville, Wis.:
Great Western smelter started up at 6 a. m. today. The precious metal is now flowing in a beautiful golden stream. Our efforts are crowned with success. The American flag floats proudly over our property. We render thanks to God for this great achievement.

(Signed) Board of Directors,
By T. S. HENDERSON, Pres.,
T. S. Henderson & Co.

I am only handling first-class investments and have at the present time three propositions, any one of which is bound to make the investor a mint of money.

Highland Gold Mining stock of Oregon at 25c per share is a sure money-maker. $1,000,000 in ore is in sight. A 75-ton mill is now running and early this season a 200 to 250-ton plant will be installed. Ore values from this mine run from $8 to $200 per ton and my prediction is that this stock will be taken off the market entirely very shortly. The price is now 25c per share.

Lincoln Consolidated of Arizona, another high-grade mining proposition, is also 25c. Little Jap Zinc and Lead stock of Plattville, a coming dividend payer, a mine with a very bright prospect; price, 15c share.

I have said before what I now state:
These stocks will make a fortune for the fellow with just a little cash and that very shortly. Again I say buy mining stock of the legitimate kind NOW.

CHARLES RINGLING ASKED QUESTIONS

Regarding Janesville's Facilities for Harboring Headquarters of Forepaugh-Sells Circus.

On the passenger from Chicago last evening Frank L. Smith fell into a conversation with Charles Ringling who was returning to Baraboo. "I see by the Gazette," said Mr. Ringling, "that the winter quarters of the Forepaugh-Sells circus may be located in Janesville—have you any suitable place for such an institution over there?" Mr. Smith suggested the fairgrounds. "Are the buildings in good condition?" The Janesville man was of the opinion that they were, and volunteered the information that they were better buildings than are erected by most enterprises of the kind. "What about railroad connections?" "Well," said Mr. Smith, "there are no tracks to the fairgrounds now but they could be had, no doubt, if the need for them arose." The Janesville man had to leave the train right in the midst of this interesting conversation and before he had a chance to tell Mr. Ringling about the other possible sites that already have ample railroad facilities. The Baraboo circusman seemed genuinely interested in what Janesville might have to offer.

EXPERT ON SUGAR BEETS WILL TALK

Farmers Invited to Meeting of Beet Growers' Association Here on March 30.

Following is the call issued by a committee of the Southern Wisconsin Beet-Growers' association for a meeting to be held here in the city hall, Thursday, March 30. Prof. F. W. Woll, state chemist and expert on sugar beets will address the gatherings, a general discussion will be held and business will be transacted. Mass-Meeting of Farmers. The Southern Wisconsin Beet-Growers' association invites all farmers to meet with them at the city hall in Janesville on Thursday, March 30. Questions of vital interest will be discussed by able speakers. The afternoon will be devoted to business and hearing the organizer of the American Society of Equity. In the afternoon Professor F. W. Woll, state chemist and expert on sugar beets, will address the meeting. This will be followed by a general discussion of the problems in beet culture. Let everybody turn out and get the benefit of this meeting.

GAME-FISH CUT OFF FROM THE STREAMS

And Spawning Grounds by the Nelson Laid for Carp? It Is So.

It is claimed that nets laid for carp are now obstructing many of the streams emptying into Lake Koshkonong in such a manner as to prevent game-fish from getting to the headwaters to spawn; that the game-fish which are taken in the catches, and returned to the lake are injured in the handling; and that the pulling of the nets disturb the roots of the wild celery, thereby decreasing the drawing power of the lake for wild-ducks. There may be some basis for objections to the continuance of these fishing operations.

CITY-HALL CAT A THOROUGHbred?

Janitor George Phillips Says She Has the Sky-Blue Eyes—Raises Her Price to $50.

Is "Lady May," the city-hall cat that dares to calmly perch on the shoulders of the dignified city fathers at council meetings and drinks the mayor's ice-water, a thoroughbred? George Phillips, the janitor, says she is. The life-history and career of the famous prize-winner,

"LADY MAY"

"Major," appearing in last night's Gazette acquainted Mr. Phillips for the first time with the fact that blue-eyes constitute a rare and desirable quality in the feline tribe. Forthwith he hastened to the little cattery in the furnace-room and rapturously confirmed his suspicions. Thereupon the quotations on "Lady May" were advanced 75 cents to $50. For she has "em-blue blue eyes—according to George. One or two of the city officials were dubious and refused to share in the owner's enthusiasm. They said that the orbs appeared to be to possess a tinge of the piebald green. "Color-blind!" said the irritated janitor. "They're blue as the sapphire sea."

ON TRACK OF CHICAGO BOY WHO PASSED BOGUS CHECKS

Madison Police Are Looking for a Youth Who Was in Janesville Monday.

Sheriff Wallace Cochrane has secured evidence which may lead to the arrest of a Chicago youth who has been cashing spurious checks in Rock county. The boy was in Janesville Monday, coming here from Milton Junction where he succeeded in cashing a bad check on Banker Gates, and prior to that time he had passed five of the bogus instruments in Madison. The Madison police department, acting on advice furnished by the Rock county officer, is pursuing investigations in Chicago.

VISITOR INSISTED ON BEING JOVIAL

And Gay, Though There Was Sickness in the Nelson Home—Locked Up in Police Station.

In such slight esteem was the honor of a friendly call made by one Mrs. Gilbertson at the home of Mrs. Emma Nelson, 204 South River street, regarded by the recipients that they telephoned for the police to take her away at 8:30 last evening. There was sickness in the house but the visitor insisted on being jovial and making the most of the fleeting hours. It may be stated parenthetically that her hilarity was mostly artificial and owed its origin to the little brown jug. Officer Bear responded to the summons and took Mrs. Gilbertson to the station where she passed the night.

FOR CYCLING ON THE SIDEWALKS

Charles Burgess Paid a Fine of $1 and Costs in Municipal Court Yesterday.

In municipal court yesterday, Charles Burgess, proprietor of the bicycle shop on the Corn Exchange, paid a fine of $1 and costs for riding a bicycle on the sidewalks. On one or more occasions Mr. Burgess is alleged to have pedaled leisurely by the police station in the city hall on the forbidden portion of the thoroughfare and Marshal Comstock finally informed him that he was violating the ordinance. This information he did not receive in the kindly spirit in which it was offered and rash words which he uttered led to his arrest. Other cyclists who have been using the walks may profit by his example.

A LEADER DURING COLLEGE CAREER

Athol Rollins Received Many High Honors While at Lawrence University.

Athol Rollins, who yesterday received word of his appointment to one of the Rhodes scholarships of Wisconsin, is very probably as young a man as this honor has or ever will be conferred upon, being but twenty-one years of age. He is a native of Yorkville, a village near Racine, Wis., and is the son of Rev. Dr. Rollins, pastor of the Algoma street

Methodist church of Oshkosh, where Athol Rollins now makes his home. He attended the public schools in various parts of this country and Canada, his father being called to churches in places widely separated and in different states. He entered high school at Lake Mills, attended the Evansville institution during the second and third years of his course and completed his preparatory training by a year at Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam. His four years of university and college training were all received at Lawrence University, Appleton. Throughout his college career Mr. Rollins was very prominent and popular. He was a member of the Phoenix literary society and the Delta Delta fraternity, represented his class on "three pentathlon teams in interclass meets, played in the Glee club and was president of the class of 1904 in its graduating year. While a member of the Glee club he visited this city three years ago playing with that organization one evening at the Methodist church. He was vice president one term of the college oratorical league. As a student he succeeded in accomplishing what few others do, receiving first honors in both sophomore and junior years. All honors due any one taking the classical course of study were awarded to him when a sophomore; he received the Lewis medal for general scholarship, and the medals in Greek and Latin. At the commencement exercises he took the leading role in the play, which was written by a member of the class. He graduated with highest honors and the degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred upon him. During his senior year Dr. Wright, teacher of Latin, was taken ill and Mr. Rollins supplied for him for a month. His work at the present time is the instruction of Greek and Latin in the high school here. Next fall he will enter one of the colleges of Oxford university and take as a specialty the study of comparative philology.

WAUKESHA WINNER OF CHAMPIONSHIP

Score Keepers Couldn't Agree on Final Score—Janesville Claims 38 to 26.

Though the score-keepers could not agree on the final count for the Waukesha-Janesville game played in the high school gymnasium here last night, nearly all admitted at the end of the first half that the local team had no chance of overcoming Waukesha's lead and would lose the championship of southern Wisconsin. Bitter, the tallyman for Janesville failed to record a field basket for Waukesha or the Waukesha score-counter became excited and nervous and made to many marks on his card, but the final result was that Janesville decided to call the game a victory for Waukesha by a score of 38 to 26 and Waukesha determined to claim the laurels with a score of 40 to 26. The game was a fast one from the first toss-up until the time-keepers announced the end of the game and though Janesville was badly beaten in the first half for Janesville by two points. What the Waukesha officials termed fouls in the custom of using as fair play and a large portion of the score of the visiting team was made on free throws. The line-up was as follows:

Waukesha Janesville
Land.....f.....Morse
J. Lyons.....f.....Carle
F. Johnson.....c.....Sennett
Muckelstone.....g.....Wright
Penlon.....g.....Galbraith
Substitutes: For Janesville, Ryan; for Waukesha, Dieman, More and J. Lyons.

Officials: Whitney of Waukesha and Wilbur of Janesville.
Girls' Teams Play
In not as fast, though a closer game, than was played by the two boys' teams, two picked girls' teams of the school, termed the first and second, contested. The result was a defeat for the first five by a score of 5 to 6. The line-up was as follows:

First Second
R. Fiffeld.....f.....Fox
S. MacLean.....f.....V. Dreyer
Winterroth.....g.....V. Bennisson
Heylman.....g.....Litte
Holt.....g.....E. MacLean

A Beautiful Ceiling Decoration
In Kimball's show window is a 7-foot circular ceiling panel, the work of Adolph Kundson, the most beautiful ceiling decoration ever seen in Janesville, painted in the unsurpassed French style of Louis XVI—a style whose beauty has been eagerly adopted by the owners of the finest American homes. Owners of Janesville's fine homes should see this before decorating.
